

A Place of Our Own and Los Niños en Su Casa 2009 National Child Care Provider Honorees

A Place of Our Own and Los Niños en Su Casa are pleased to recognize 17 individuals who are truly committed to the care of children under the age of 5. This year's honorees all exemplify the challenging and rewarding nature of what it means to be a child care provider today. They have opened their homes and their hearts to provide the very best care to our country's youngest citizens. These every day heroes encourage us to make sure that all children are given the best possible start in life. These honorees have been recognized as "Child Care Provider of the Week" on the award winning PBS series, A Place of Our Own and Los Niños en Su Casa.

Yvonne "Bonnie" Stewart-DeLancy
Washington, DC

Bonnie Stewart- DeLancy's love for teaching began as a child. However, it wasn't until she had her own child that she was given the opportunity to put that passion into practice. After 17 years in child care, Bonnie says her love for working with children is as strong as ever. Read More . . .
